

I support HB 6484 banning the hand harvesting of horseshoe crabs. I have led tagging and counting for Project Limulus in SE Connecticut for over 10 years. We used to find thousands of crabs in the mating season. Now we are lucky to find one or two hundred. There are alternatives for whelk and eel fishermen to use - harvesting horseshoe crabs is not necessary.